

ADULT SERVICES

WOOD COUNTY DISTRICT PUBLIC LIBRARY

October 2017

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2 7 pm Monday Mysteries Book Group	3	4 10:30 am Read for Inspiration Book Group 10:30 am Ukulele for Beginners	5 Michele recommends: The Weight of Ink by Rachel Kadish	6	7 10 am - Noon Super Saturday Tech Help
8 Marnie recommends: Norse Mythology by Neil Gaiman	9 6:30 pm Page to Table Book Group	10 6:30 pm Diversity in America Book Group	11	12 6 pm America & World Facism 7 pm Homefires Burning: WWI Fiction at WCHM	13	14 Kristin recommends: The It Girls by Karen Harper
15	16 7 pm From Handel to Scriabin Piano Concert	17 Brian recommends: Devil's Gate by David Roberts	18 10:30 am Ukulele for Beginners	19 10 am Coffee Talk Book Group 4 pm Meet Keiko Ogura & Setsuko Thurlow	20 Closed for Staff Training	21
22	23 7 pm Creature of the Night: The Owl	24 10:30 am Just the Facts Book Group 6:30 pm Ohio's Haunted History Night	25	26 Jordan recommends: The Book of Lost Things by John Connolly	27	28 1 pm Community Within: Discovering African-American History in Rural Ohio
29	30 Anne recommends: The Dark Days Club by Alison Goodman	31

October 2017

Programs

America & World Facism

Thursday, October 12, 6 pm

1st Floor Meeting Room

Screening of Souls Without Borders: The Untold Story of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. Offered in partnership with the BGSU History Department and the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives.

Homefires Burning: WWI Fiction

Thursday, October 12, 7 pm

Wood County Historical Center & Museum

13660 County Home Road, Bowling Green

Explore the lives forever changed by the war through poetry and literature.

From Handel to Scriabin Piano Concert

Monday, October 16, 7pm

Atrium

BGSU piano students from around the world perform.

Hiroshima Survivors Keiko Ogura & Setsuko Thurlow

Thursday, October 19, 4 pm

Carter House, 307 N. Church St., Bowling Green

Two hibakusha, survivors of the 1945 atomic bombings, share personal stories and perspectives on the Hiroshima bombing and threats to peace today.

Creature of the Night: The Owl

Monday, October 23, 7 pm

Atrium

Nature's Nursery brings live owls to help us discover their fascinating night life.

Ohio's Haunted History Night

Tuesday, October 24, 6:30 pm

Atrium

Ohio has a rich history of ghost tales and haunted locations. Listen as storytellers regale you with some of these tales. But beware - some may just keep you up all night.

Community Within: Discovering African-American History in Rural Ohio

Saturday, October 28, 1 pm

1st Floor Meeting Room

Join guest speaker Professor Ric S. Sheffield of Kenyon College on a quest to reclaim the history of African-Americans in rural Ohio.

Tell Us a Story: Oral History Chats at WCDPL

Do you have a story to tell about Wood County's past? Chat with local history librarian Marnie Pratt about this month's subject, "Ohio's Ghost Stories."

Classes and Tech Help

Ukulele for Beginners

Wednesdays, October 4 & 18, 10:30 am

1st Floor Meeting Room

Learn to strum, play chords, and jam to familiar and new songs. All practice materials will be provided. Registration is limited to 25 adults. Call 419-352-5050 for registration instructions.

Tech Help Almost Any Time

Monday-Friday

Make an appointment with library staff for 1-on-1 help with computers and devices by calling 419-352-5050.

Super Saturday Tech Help

Saturday, October 7, 10 am

2nd Floor Meeting Room

Drop in from 10 until noon to get free personal training with your ereader, iPad, laptop, or tablet by experts from the Omega Phi Alpha service sorority.

Book Discussions @ WCDPL

Monday Mysteries

with Mary Callahan Boone & Doris Ann Norris

Monday, October 2, 7 pm

Carter House - 307 N. Church St.

A Murder in Time by Julie McElwain.

Read for Inspiration with Deb Born

Wednesday, October 4, 10:30 am

2nd Floor Reading Lounge

All Things New by Lynn Austin.

Page to Table with Kristin Wetzel & Jenny Swope

Monday, October 9, 6:30 pm

2nd Floor Meeting Room

One Pan Wonders by America's Test Kitchen.

Bring a dish and its recipe to the meeting to share.

Diversity in America with Jim Litwin

Tuesday, October 10, 6:30 pm

1st Floor Meeting Room

Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann.

Coffee Talk with Kristin Wetzel

Thursday, October 19, 10 am

2nd Floor Meeting Room

The Railwayman's Wife by Ashley Hay.

Just the Facts with Anne Render

Tuesday, October 24, 10:30 am

2nd Floor Meeting Room

Ghostland: An American History in Haunted Places by Colin Dickey.