

Arabian Nights Retold

The Classic Story

A king, hurt and betrayed, has begun marrying a new wife every night only to kill her in the morning. His kingdom lives in fear until one brave girl, Shahrezad, volunteers to be his wife. She is a storyteller, and the night she is married, she begins a story that does not finish before the dawn, and the king allows her to live another night. This continues for 1001 nights, until the power of her stories transforms the king into a man capable of loving and being loved.
