WHAT IS THE BOOKMOBILE?

The Wood County District Public Library's Bookmobile is a full-service mobile library that visits 10 public stop locations within WCDPL's service district! The Bookmobile is open to all ages and carries a variety of materials.

Receive a free library card; pick up take-home activities; borrow books, audiobooks, movies, and CDs; grab a free magazine; request reference assistance; place holds; renew materials; register to vote; and more!

Bookmobile materials may be returned at any WoodLink library.

For more information:

- visit wcdpl.org/bookmobile
- call (419) 352-5104 ext. 221
- email bookmobile@wcdpl.org

CAN I PARTICIPATE IN THE SUMMER READING PROGRAM FROM THE BOOKMOBILE?

Absolutely! Register for the Summer Reading Program, Oceans of Possibilities, log your reading, and earn prizes; all from the Bookmobile!

Bookmobile staff will also continue handing out and stamping Bookmobile Passports throughout the summer. Each time you visit a WCDPL Bookmobile stop, get your passport stamped. When you get to five stamps, choose a prize from our Bookmobile Treasure Chest! This adventure is open to all ages and continues for the rest of 2022.

For more WCDPL programming, visit wcdpl.org.
